

Fantastagorey Book Writing & Character Drawing Contest Official Rules

The Edward Gorey House invites authors ages 12-18 to participate in a children's book writing contest in honor of Fantastagorey: A Children's Day Celebration. Children under 12 years old are invited to participate in our character drawing contest.

Children's books must consist of either only illustrations or text and illustrations, and Character illustrations for the younger children's contest can be drawings on any sized paper. Due to the volume of entries, no submissions will be returned after the contest's completion unless a self-addressed, stamped envelope is included with the submission. Entries must include name, birth date, address, and telephone number.

One winner to the book writing contest will receive a private dinner in the Edward Gorey House with Director, Rick Jones, as well as a private behind the scenes tour of the Edward Gorey House and a Gorey prize pack. Three runners up will receive a Gorey prize pack.

One winner to the Character illustration contest will have their work displayed in the museum, and receive a Gore prize pack. Three runners up will receive a Gorey prize pack.

Submissions must be received to the Edward Gorey House with a $5 dollar entry fee in either cash or check no later than July 25th addressed as:

Edward Gorey House
Children's Book Contest
8 Strawberry Lane
Yarmouth Port, MA 02675

Winners will be announced on August 7, 2010 at 3 p.m. at the Edward Gorey House's literacy celebration, "Fantastagorey: A Children's Day Celebration." Winners will be notified at the event, or by phone if they are not present during the event.
